"Abide in Love, Not Death"

Genesis chapter 4 records a significant event in human history, the fist murder. We read that the first son born of Adam and Eve, Cain, murdered his brother, the second born son, Abel. Cain becomes angry because his offering was not accepted by the Lord while his brother Abel's offering was accepted.

But why was Cain's offering not accepted by God? In 1 John 3:11-14 we read, "For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. We should not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him."

Cain's hostility toward Abel stemmed from the stark difference between Abel's righteous conduct and his own wickedness. Instead of responding to this conviction with repentance, Cain chose to destroy the brother whose godly life exposed his sin.

This same sinful pattern can still be seen today, reminding us to examine and guard our own hearts. When jealousy or bitterness develops toward another believer, we must recognize the seriousness of such attitudes. Rather than allowing these sinful desires to grow, we must put them aside and cultivate the sincere love that characterizes those who have been brought from death to life.

In Christ,
