Memory Verse for April: Isaiah 59:2

But your iniquities have made a separation between you and your God, and your sins have hidden his face from you so that he does not hear.

A word from our Pastor

Camellia Family, I have been grateful for your response to Who's Your One? As I stated throughout my sermons, even though I have finished with that sermon series, we are by no means finished with Who's Your One? It is my hope and prayer that this will not merely be an evangelistic campaign for us, but that this will become a way of life for all of us.

I want to encourage you to continue to be intentional in reaching your "one." Continue to pray daily for them, continue to be intentional about building a relationship with them, and be intentional with inviting them to church. With Easter just a few Sundays away, there is no greater opportunity that we will have to invite them to church. More people are willing to come to church Easter Sunday than any other Sunday throughout this year. Let's all commit to making an opportunity to invite our "ones" to church for Easter, April 17th.

With April being the month that we celebrate Easter, it is also the month that we take up our Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. Just like our Lottie Moon Christmas Offering goes to support our international missionaries through our International Mission Board, the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering supports our North American missionaries who serve through our North American Mission Board.

Camellia's goal this year is $5,000. This will be an incredible simple goal to surpass. If each family gives $34 to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering, we will easily surpass our goal. To give to this offering, please place your money in one of the Annie Armstrong envelopes that can be found in the pews, vestibule, or hallways. You can also put Annie Armstrong offering in the memo section of your check. If giving online, please choose Annie Armstrong as the fund.

I trust that we will meet this challenge, and that God will continue to use Camellia to reach our "ones" here in Prattville while we support our missionaries and reach the world for Christ!

May God bless you, Bro. James
